

Active Learning: Measuring the Bug

- Real-world situations give students a chance to use measuring tools correctly.
- Students estimate the size of the bug then measure it with the meter stick.
- The bug is released and allowed to run for 10 seconds.
- The distance the bug has traveled is measured.
- The students record this distance on their recording sheet.