

Manipulatives: Fraction Bars

- Fraction bars are used to help students understand the different names for fractions.
- Here the students are looking for other names for one-half.
- By allowing students to manipulate the fractions, this abstract concept is clarified.