

FLORIDA
INTRACOASTAL WATERWAY
BARNES SOUND TO KEY WEST

Scale 1:60,000
SOUNDINGS IN FEET
OF MEAN LOW WATER

Units	Sea Level	High Water	Low Water	Mean Tide	Key West
Feet	0.0	1.0	1.0	1.0	1.0
Meters	0.0	0.3	0.3	0.3	0.3

ABBREVIATIONS
Light House, Buoy, etc. as shown in red on this chart.
By day, the color of the light, and at night, the color of the light, as shown in red on this chart.
By day, the color of the light, and at night, the color of the light, as shown in red on this chart.
By day, the color of the light, and at night, the color of the light, as shown in red on this chart.
By day, the color of the light, and at night, the color of the light, as shown in red on this chart.

Courses are magnetic
Distances are given in nautical miles

From the Image Archives of the Historical Map & Chart Collection
OFFICE OF COAST SURVEY, NATIONAL OCEANIC AND ATMOSPHERIC ADMINISTRATION
U.S. COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
(Barnes Sound to Key West) U.S.C. & G.S. 3261

Barnes Sound to Key West, 1932

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Intracoastal Waterway (Washington, DC: United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, 1932)

Downloaded from Maps ETC, on the web at <http://etc.usf.edu/maps> [map #f3558]