 sides the Spence Sloop Cap^t Lewis and the Wolf Cap^t Dandridge On the 2^d Col Vander Dufens with 300 Carolina Soldiers arriv'd to the North of the Town On the 9th Gen^l Oglethorpe came to Sea with 300 Soldiers and 300 Indians from Georgia On the 10th they were carried a Shore in the Men of Wars to an anchor the cover of the small ships Guns They landed on the Island Eufatia without Opposition and took the Look-out at G
 The 15th Cap^t Warren in a Schooner and other Armed Sloops and Pelicans anchored in their Harbour just out of Cannon Shot all the 26th when the Sailors were employ'd in landing Ordnance and other Stores within Reach of the Enemys Cannon On which Occasion they discover'd a surprising Spirit and Intrepidity The same night two Batteries were rais'd but too far off
 The 27th the General summon'd the Governour to Surrender who sent word he should be glad to shake hands with him in his Castle This request by answer was occasion'd by a dear bought Victory which 500 Spaniards had obtain'd over 80 Highlanders 30 of whom were slain but did like Heroes killing thrice their number The 29th bad Weather oblig'd the men of War to putt to sea out of view but one man had been kill'd Since upon the Siege was rais'd
